The best and most reliable place to check for the SEBI Grade A (Assistant Manager) Notification is the official SEBI website.

1. Official SEBI Careers/Vacancies Page ⭐ (Recommended)

Go to:

SEBI Vacancies Page

This page publishes:

Grade A recruitment notifications
Official notification PDFs
Application links
Exam schedules
Admit cards
Results

The 2025 and 2026 Grade A recruitment notices have been published there.

2. SEBI Opportunities Page

You can also check:

SEBI Opportunities Page

This page explains:

Eligibility for each stream (including IT)
Age limits
Educational qualifications
Recruitment information for Grade A officers.

3. Follow trusted exam websites (for alerts)

These sites usually notify candidates within minutes or hours after the official notification is released:

Anuj Jindal SEBI Grade A Updates
EduTap SEBI Grade A Guide

These are useful for analysis and preparation, but always rely on the official SEBI notification for eligibility, dates, vacancies, and the application process.

Since you're a final-year IT engineering student

I recommend this plan:

Bookmark the official SEBI Vacancies page.
Check it once a week (or more often around September–November, when notifications have commonly appeared in recent cycles).

Start preparing now so you're ready as soon as the notification is released.

If your goal is a ₹15–20+ LPA government IT job, I can also give you a 12-month roadmap covering SEBI Grade A (IT), NIC Scientist B, ISRO, and IBPS SO IT together, since much of their technical syllabus overlaps.
